the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995 (Department of Health 1996). The number of people employed in the health service has increased by 1.2 million, from 1.8 million in 1980 to 3 million in 1995.

There is a growing emphasis on the need to improve the efficiency of the health service, and to ensure that the health service is able to meet the needs of the population in a cost-effective manner. This has led to a number of initiatives, including the introduction of the Health Service Act 1990, which introduced a new framework for the health service, and the introduction of the Health Service Act 1997, which introduced a new framework for the health service. The Health Service Act 1990 introduced a new framework for the health service, which was based on the principle of 'patient choice'. The Health Service Act 1997 introduced a new framework for the health service, which was based on the principle of 'patient choice'.

This school year saw the emergence of many new faces as well as the return of old faces. The new faces included William "The Refrigerator" Perry of the Chicago Bears and the "new" Coke (which became the old Coke when the original Coke was reintroduced). # Spirit of THE ORGANIZATION

At the age of 5, Robert Pershing Wadlow stood 5'6" tall. By the time he was 10 years old, he was 6'5" tall and weighed more than 200 pounds. At birth he had weighed 8½ pounds. At the age of 22 he died. At the time of his death he was 8'11.1" tall. Forty-five years later his hometown folks erected a statue of him for the "Gentle Giant".

Doug Simpson takes a seat in the Seat-A-Thon which was held on December 7, 1985. Seat-A-Thon is part of an effort to raise money for the auditorium. The money will be used to repair the chairs and floor.

VARSITY TRACK

Indeed, the 1985 season outlook appeared challenging, inspiring, and lots of fun for the Alton track team. With a larger turnout than usual, more students were out for the spring sport than in the past 5 years. The Redbird track team captivated awesome talent and determination. During the first outdoor meet of the year, the 400m and 800m relay teams ran qualifying for the Illinois State meet. A few weeks later, the 1600m relay team ran a sizzling 3:25 for another qualifying mark. Terrence Holiday and Norman Bilsbury were the only ones to qualify for State in Charleston. Holiday would compete in the 200 meter dash and Bilsbury in the 1600. Tragedy struck Terrence as he suffered a pulled hamstring in the prelims after establishing a confident lead. Bilsbury qualified for finals in the 1600 and proceeded on to finish 9th.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Alton VARSITY HARRIERS, led by senior, Norman Bilsbury, had a very prosperous year. The varsity runners had many victories at home on their new course at Gordon Moore Park and often placed well at other meets in the area. The Harriers did not make it out of regionals as a team, but junior Joe Twichell and senior Norman Bilsbury, went on to represent the team at the state meet in Peoria. Good luck to the returning Redbirds next year.

Once again the Redbirds dominated the division with their winning team. Led by Larry Smith and Bobby Collins (captain and co-captain), the Redbirds had a spectacular season. In addition, Matt Hausmann, Tim Simmons, Tony Herd, Deleon Lavender, Kirk Wallace and Doug Brooks helped the Redbirds' success. The team enjoyed sold-out games and enthusiastic fans. The excitement soared when Alton played rival Granite City. The fans also enjoyed seeing David Middleton, Todd Thomas, Paul Dread, David Wilkinson, Martin Jones, Chris Doucleff, Lee Wangelin, Jerry Lewis and Joe Twichell lend a hand. These players should help the Redbirds have yet another great season next year.

GOLF

After starting the season 6-0, the Alton High golf team finished the season with a good, but slightly disappointing, 12-6 record. Seniors Joe Eckhard and Andrew Mottaz led the team, followed closely by freshman Chad Randall. Other varsity starters were Brad Elik and Jay Greenwood, seniors; Tom Kanturek and John Plunk, juniors; Brad Phillips, sophomore; and Mike Cress and Brad Tiemann, freshmen.

The Redbirds came in sixth in both the regional tournament and the Granite City Scramble. No individuals qualified for the sectional tourney, although Joe Eckhard missed only two strokes with an 82.

Because he is only losing a few starters to graduation, Coach Larry Overath's team should be even stronger next year than it was this year.

The girls' team, the first in several years, included Jenny Tejada, Jennifer Hughey and Louise Bowles, all freshmen. Jennifer Hughey qualified for the sectional tournament.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

"The Best Is Yet To Come"

For the first time in over twenty years the juniors and seniors got together and held a combined Jr.-Sr. prom. Also for the first time, the dance was held off campus at the Alton Holiday Inn on May 18, 1985.

Tyra Smith, the reigning Dream Girl, prepared to hand down her crown to one of seven junior candidates at the annual coronation.

Candidates and their escorts included Cami Jo Beaver and Nick Fencel, Maria Cartwright and Lance Kline, Tracy Castelli and Greg Harris, Cathy Hentrich and Tom Green, Mary Lekkas and Chad Staggs, Monika Weathers and Jody Markel, and Chris Welch and David Ferguson.

The crown went to Tracy Castelli who now reigns as the 1985-86 Dream Girl.

The band, Z-Bop, provided the musical entertainment and over 600 students attended the dance-more than any year in the past when separate dances were held.

The prom was a success off campus and will be held at the Holiday Inn again in May 1986. by Nancy Niemeier

On the evening of March 1, 1986, Alton High students threw on their Hawaiian garb and surfed into the Beach Party Dance. Approximately 350 beach bums partied to the music of D.J.'s, Kyle Kennedy and Mike Brand. The 1986 "Mr. Cool" was named also. Four people from the crowd were chosen randomly to participate in the contest. Whoever could stand in a bucket of ice the longest, was crowned Mr. (or Miss) Cool. "An Autumn Evening of Enchantment" was this year's Homecoming Dance theme. The dance was held Saturday, September 28, 1985, the earliest in A.H.S. history in the school cafeteria from 8-11 p.m. Entertainment was provided by the band, R.I.O., and D.J., Calvin Hammond.

Each year the upperclassmen nominate seven guys and girls who they feel have participated the most in school activities. Then the entire student body votes and the winners are decided. This year's royal court consisted of: Cami Jo Beaver, Maria Cartwright, Marcy McAfoos, Michelle Retzer, Becky Snyders, Monika Weathers, Chris Welch, Norman Bilsbury, Doug Brooks, Tim Brueggeman, Paul Davey, Matt Hausman, Mike Kramer, and Andy Scanlan.

The coronation took place at 10p.m. when the reigning King and Queen, Joe Bowen and Kerri Hatcher, stepped down from their throne and proudly turned it over to their successors: Marcy McAfoos and Doug Brooks.

SADIE HAWKINS DANCE

Mr. Irresistable

The Sadie Hawkins Dance gave the girls a chance to take the guys out and cover the expenses. The highlight of the evening came when Sr. Richard Dewey was named Mr. Irresistible 1985. The other candidates included Deavon Retzer and Jeff Herd, seniors; John Sloan, Doug Brooks, and Rance Long, juniors; Joel Herzon, Scott Hall, and Brad King, sophomores; Duonne Martin, David Smith, and Mark Haynes, freshmen. by, Darrell Woodman

A massive reconstruction of the Statue of Liberty was begun in 1983. Most of the restoration came in 1985 and completion was in early 1986. The rededication of the Statue will come July 3, 1986 on the 100th birthday of the great symbol of freedom and promise. Along with the reconstruction and rededication has come a renewed spirit of Americanism—the Spirit of 86.

Farm Aid, a benefit concert in Champaign, Illinois, took place on September 22. The concert, which was organized by country singer Willie Nelson, raised about $7 million to help U.S. farmers. Performers included John Cougar Mellencamp, The Charlie Daniels Band, Neil Young, Tom T. Hall, and Foreigner.

On October 9, 1985 on what would have been John Lennons 45th birthday, a 2.5 acre plot of land in Central Park was dedicated as Strawberry Fields. One hundred twenty three countries sent nature trees in order to create a growing environment to the musician who urged us all to "Imagine" world Peace. Pictured here are Lennons wife Yoko Ono and son Sean admiring a marble inlay from the Station Government.

Bottom Right: Newly appointed Soviet Leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev and President Ronald Reagan met in Geneva, Switzerland on November 19 and 20, 1985. They discussed how to achieve world peace. This was the first direct meeting with a soviet leader since Franklin Roosevelt during WW II.

Spirit of THE WORLD

On July 13, 1985, Live Aid, the biggest rock concert in history, took place. The simultaneous shows in London and Philadelphia included artists such as Phil Collins, U2, Sting, Bryan Adams, Tina Turner, Mick Jagger, David Bowie, Madonna, and Bob Geldof, who was responsible for the event, which raised over $82 million for African famine relief.

Bob Geldof, the lead singer of the British group Boomtown Rats, was the leading force behind both Band Aid and Live Aid. Geldof's famine relief efforts have raised a total of $92 million dollars.

On May 25, 1986, Hands Across America will take place. This is a plan to form a chain of 6 million people across the nation, from coast to coast. Hands Across America, which is sponsored by USA for Africa, is expected to raise $100 million in donations from participants. The money will go toward helping homeless and hungry Americans.

The Call of Bali H'i

In their musical, South Pacific, Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein tell us a story of an island located in the South Pacific during World War II and how newcomers try to take advantage of natives and vice versa. South Pacific shows an accomplished plantation farmer who ran away from blind justice to the island but still desperately yearning for love and affection from a woman. The story also tells us how soldiers and sailors alike coped with the war.

While a company of sailors are relaxing on the shores of Bali H'i, an old but healthy woman, Bloody Mary, is trying to sell grass skirts, shrunk heads, simple earrings, etc. to these sailors hoping to get rich quick. Luther Billis, Stewpot, and "The Professor" (all petty officers) don't try to take advantage of Bloody Mary's ignorance by trying to sell her grass skirts at an unfair price. She not only takes the skirts, but she also takes their money. "for good luck" while giving them a valuable boat's tooth bracelet. Bloody Mary also tries to marry off her only daughter, Liat, to a promising Marine Second Lieutenant Joseph Cables in hopes that she too could enjoy a better life.

Emile De Becque, the main character, was a plantation farmer in about his mid-fifties. When he was much younger he killed a man in France in self defense. After the ordeal he knew then that he had to leave his homeland in exile and start a new life somewhere far away. On the island of Bali H'i he lived like a king. He had slaves working for him, a fine home, and two children to call him father (Nana and Jerome). Despite all of these conveniences, he still reluctantly hoped for the warmth and affection of a young woman. Ever since he laid eyes on Ensign-Nurse Nellie Forbush, he has been trying to win her heart ever since.

Being on the front line in combat situation is not exactly like a bed of rose petals. These brave, young soldier and sailors alike put their life on the line almost everyday for the country they so dearly loved. Home sickness often made them feel alone, alienated, and sometimes forgotten which made them rely on each other even more. To help relieve these tensions they would often entertain themselves. Higher officials also organized special shows for their paens of war.

Bali H'i is called with promise of profit for individuals, with promise of sanctuary from blind justice, with promise of dreams coming true, and with promise of love. Bali H'i may have called you with promise of music, song, dance, as well as a good story of an island of wonder.

Now that my ten year career at Altan High has ended, I want to thank the students, parents, teachers and administration for their support. I am grateful for the experience. As the Tatler Advisor for the past 9 years, I have seen this school perhaps closer than anyone else. This is a great school that is overflowing with love and opportunity. Every student can be successful if they are willing to have faith, dream big, set goals and use the tools and personnel here to help them achieve. They also must be willing to change, to grow and develop and to support others in their change.

This is what I've tried to do and I feel that I have succeeded. I hope that you enjoyed the Tatlers.

Sincerely,
Rob Hansen

"Hope" by Hugh Hallett

In my opinion, to love in the spirit of love is life's greatest hope.

It requires more flexibility, sensitivity, tolerance, knowledge and strength than any other human action, because the forces of love and world reality are the greatest opposing forces of life.

Love and the practices of the real world are always at severe odds. Many people feel unable to act or bridge the gap, because in reality, the gap is almost unbridgeable.

The strength to believe in loving humankind when pitted against society's nonreinforcing nature is more than most people can accept or deal with.

People often fall into patterns of putting caring aside, or to save it for a few special people within their own unique network, and sometimes join the negative forces of society in querying the proof of carings real existence.

To live productively in a spirit of love requires the greatest strengths known to man.

The reality of genuine caring is so seldom experienced that most people don't really know how to cope with it even when they discover it. Recall, they crucified a Jew, shot a Ghandi, beheaded a Thomas More and poisoned a Socrates. Society barely countenances honesty, tenderness, or concern. These qualities of positive growth get in the way of the "Ways of the World". This fact has been duly noted in Plato's New Republic, Dostoevski's The Idiot, and Kazantzake's Greek Passion.

People search for a figure of love to emulate, spend some time at the prophet's feet in study, and then get skittish and seem to gain great satisfaction in the person's downfall. It's as if they cannot stand to look upon perfection, because it mirrors too much self-reflection which perhaps moves them to thoughts of change which is too frightening and too painful to support. If they are not perfect, the imperfections at their central core come back to haunt them.

It would seem that many humans do not function in a world of humanism, indeed a world more likely of cruelty, deception, and manipulation of others. Therefore, human beings cannot depend on a problem-riddled society to give direction to their lives in order for them to cope.

Humans must have the strength to live to their fullest potential and the strength must generate from within themselves not from external sources.

There must be a full recognition of evil, hate, and bigotry as real life forces, but one has to see love and human potential as the greatest energy forces in life; and one must act as Ghandi with non-violence, Socrates with truth, Jesus with love, and Sir Thomas More with complete integrity. The path will be very lonely, but the humanist must comprehend the following ways to gain the strength to act humanly: explore one's true self; help others to share ideas, feelings, dreams; recognize forces labeled as "evil or enemies" are all people who are suffering and must try to help them from their beings also; believe life is not evil, but that human action has made it appear evil at certain times in history; be forgiving of self and others; recognize change as good as necessary; realize that behavior to be learned must be tried out, successfully or failed, reject no human even those who are self-rejecting; love even when your love is rejected true love is never conditional, one gives love freely, because one is lucky to have an abundance of love to give.

Applying these rules in life seems to be the only true hope for mankind. I'd like to close with a quote from Thornton Wilder's "Bridge of San Luis Rey": "Even memory is not necessary for love. There is a land of the living and a land of the dead, and the only bridge is love, the only survival and the only meaning."

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out a vision for the future of older people's health and care. The strategy is based on the following principles:

- Older people should be able to live independently and actively in the community.
- Older people should be able to access the services and support they need to live well.
- Older people should be able to participate in decisions about their care and support.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for the future of older people's health and care. These include:

- Improving the health and well-being of older people.
- Improving the quality of care and support for older people.
- Improving the access to services and support for older people.

The strategy is a key document for the future of older people's health and care in the UK. It sets out a vision for the future and provides a framework for the development of policies and services for older people.
